

THE TRIBUNE.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 11, 1841.

For an Abstract of General Public Affairs, passed by our last Legislature, see First Page.
For The Vision of the Coffin-Maker's Prentice, Poetry, see Last Page.

*All notices of Public Meetings, Religious, Political, &c. of Service to be delivered by Clergymen visiting our City, &c. will be conspicuously published in The Tribune (if not exceeding six lines) for 25 cents an insertion.

Our readers will perceive with pleasure that the Sub-Treasury Bill was repealed in the House of Representatives on Monday, by the decisive vote of 134 to 87. The bill passed the Senate some weeks since.

RAILROAD TO ALBANY—THE PROSPERITY OF NEW-YORK.—We have been amused to witness, during the last few weeks, the sudden zeal of the Standard, Journal of Commerce, Sun and other Loco-Foco journals of our City, for the immediate construction of a Railroad direct to Albany. "Hurrah! Wake up! Fire! Murder! Treason!" "Boston is completing a Railroad to Albany, which will divert the Western Trade to her own wharves, and leave New-York high and dry as a stranded whale! All hands to the rescue! We must have a Railroad up the Hudson instantly!"

Now, without inquiring into the motives or the purpose of this sudden outburst, we should really like to know of these patriots, how they would have the Railroad built. Year after year they have fulminated anathemas against a Forty Million Debt, "State Bankruptcy," "Grinding Taxation," &c., &c., until they have brought their disciples to look upon every State investment in Internal Improvements as a wanton imposition upon Posterity for the benefit of drones and speculators. They have voted and railed against our Whig State Administration for merely prosecuting to completion the Works commenced by their predecessors. They have praised and concurred in Hoffman's Report to the last Assembly, recommending a stoppage of all Loans for State Works, even including the Erie Canal Enlargement, and their prosecution hereafter only so far as the Annual Surplus of Canal Tolls will pay the expense! At this rate, Boston would have her Railroad line extended to the Iron Mountain of Missouri long before ours reached Albany. The interest accruing on half-constructed and therefore profitless improvements would soon equal the cost of the contemplated Road.

But, committed as these sages are against the vigorous prosecution of Improvements directly, solely by the State, may they not prefer to aid their construction by Companies? No! they are equally and solemnly committed to hostility to "soulless Corporations." For years their columns have teemed with denunciations of these, and especially of all aid to them from the State. Who does not remember the barbarous, senseless, suicidal pledge under which James J. Roosevelt, Paul Grout & Co. were elected to represent this enlightened City in the Legislature of 1840? That Pledge was equally blighting to all Improvement by any practical, any conceivable mode. We were in Albany that winter and witnessed, with a blush for our deluded City, its practical operation. We saw the dexterous, managing portion of our Delegation dodging and scattering like frightened partridges when Railroad bills came up on third reading—afraid to vote, late their pledges, yet unwilling to vote directly in opposition to their own common sense and the interests of their constituents. We saw defeated, when our Delegation might have carried it, the bill framed in accordance with an offer of the Harlem Railroad Company to construct their Road to the line of Putnam County on the route to Albany, if only aided by a loan of the State credit for $100,000, secured by a first mortgage on their whole work costing over a million. If this bill had passed, the Road to Albany would have been nearly finished by this time without the cost or risk of a dollar to the State—now it is where it is. And behold! at the last minute, when the Boston Road is just on the verge of completion and that through the Housatonic is nearly completed, the very men who have derided all State Loans for Improvement, denounced aid to Corporations, and opposed every practicable, every proposed plan of constructing Railroads, now raise a deafening clamor at the prospect that Boston will circumvent New-York! "Sirs! you should have thought of this before! If Boston had been blessed with Loco-Foco legislation, we should have obviously had nothing to fear from her rivalry; and when our City shall send another such Delegation, so manned, to Albany, she ought to stipulate that Boston shall enact a similar stupidity. Without this, the game is a sadly unprofitable one, and its only fruits the sacrifice of our commercial ascendancy and the well-earned derision of the world."

Hon. Stephen C. Oliver, the new Whig Postmaster at Lynn, lately observed a letter dropped into the box for distribution which he felt certain was a vile hoax, intended only to wound the feelings of the person addressed. He therefore broke it open, and found it just what he had suspected. For this act he has been formally prosecuted by some malignant Loco-Foco, but the Judge quashed the complaint. We are surprised to see the Boston Morning Post joining in the outcry, even after the complaint had been dismissed. It looks like meanness.

It was a foul compound of falsehood and malice in yesterday's Sun, intended to defame this paper, but which bears on its face the evidence of conscious villainy. If any person has really paid for the insertion of an advertisement in The Sun and found it published this paper instead, give us his name. We ask it—we demand it: if there be any such man, his name can easily be given. We never heard of the like, and are confident that no such error or fraud has ever occurred.

It is true that, our paper being recently established and our office not in the most public location, we have through Agents solicited the patronage of our friends, both as subscribers and advertisers, and their response has been most cordial and cheering. We have at this moment twice as much patronage of all kinds as the Sun had when no older than The Tribune now is, and we give twice as much reading matter. As to the relative value of the two papers as an advertising medium, very much depends upon the matter advertised. For Madame Restel's surgery, "Hunter's Red Drop," &c. the Sun is doubtless the best medium extant, and we cheerfully allow it the field. But we have the assurance of many who have tried the experiment that for Books, Fashionable Dry Goods, Boarding, &c. the Sun is very far superior. One gentleman lately informed us casually that he recently advertised some property three times in The Sun and had not a single call for it. A week after, he advertised it in The Tribune, and had a dozen calls forthwith. This is but one case of several. That The Sun feels this in the diminution of its advertising, any man can see who will take the trouble to compare its columns now with a file of the same paper six months ago. Hence this malignant attack upon us.

MOHAWK AND HUDSON RAILROAD.—Certain strictures on this Road by a correspondent in our paper of last Saturday have been understood to imply that the work is in bad condition. Not so. Our correspondent stated that the Schenectady and Saratoga Road is in wretched order; and such is notoriously the fact. Our correspondent, however, overrated the extent of horse conveyance at each end of the Mohawk, but this is not material. We rejoice most heartily to learn that efficient measures are now in progress to obviate the delay and inconvenience hitherto experienced on this Road, by availing the Plans near the Schenectady, and running by steam down to the steamboats on the River at this end. These improvements are greatly needed, and we trust will prove as advantageous to the stockholders as they must be to the traveling public. We regret that this pioneer Railroad in this Country has been unprofitable to its owners; but the matter will not be remedied by keeping the work behind the age. The money wasted in its construction is beyond recovery; but when the Road is improved as above stated, it may yet pay a fair interest on what it should have cost.

THE AUGUST ELECTIONS.

ILLINOIS.—An Extra from the Chicago American, dated 8 o'clock on the evening of the 2d, states the vote for Members of Congress in that City thus:

For James H. Ralston, Opposition.....340
" John T. Stuart, Whig.....300
Abolition about 30. Ralston ahead.....40

In '38 Stuart was beaten in Chicago 439, and Harrison was beaten there last fall 185; but then the vote was much heavier. The Extra says that if Stuart had come out under his own hand for a Bankrupt Law, he would have had a majority. But we believe he is safe.

INDIANA.—Our letters from Indiana bring us accounts of the defeat of one of the Whig Representatives (Austin W. Morris) in Marion Co. as we had been led to anticipate. A recent law of the State allows any Township to prohibit or regulate the sale of Intoxicating Liquors. This was resisted, and Mr. Morris aided to enforce it. The late Opposition Secretary of State, Wm. J. Brown, was counsel for the resisters, and in due time announced himself a candidate for the House. He has thus rode in on a barrel by 200 majority. All the other officers chosen are Whigs.

In Hancock County Chapman—the veritable gentleman so zealously instructed to crow—has run in by a similar split; all the rest Whig. Bartholomew all Whig. Stauch old Wayne, two Senators and three Representatives, all Whig, though a multiplicity of candidates; Dearborn and Franklin have elected Opposition Delegates. These Counties gave Gen. Harrison a majority, but have usually been against us when Harrison's name was not before the People. Switzerland and Floyd have chosen Whigs; the latter was a strong Jackson County. We shall have farther letters to-day, and shall not be surprised to hear that the House is Opposition; as all manner of local questions are brought to bear against us, while great indifference prevails as to the result, and no thing of consequence is depending.

KENTUCKY.—The second day's poll at Louisville assures the election as Delegates of Messrs. Bullock and Wolfe, the regular Whig candidates, over a mixed ticket. Vote: Bullock 950; Wolfe 800; Speed 667; Brian (Opp.) 185.

In Fayette Co. (Lexington) young Robert Wickliffe was likely to defeat Cassius M. Clay—both Whigs.

A friend in Newport, R. I. writes us that there is a great demand for Female Labor in that quarter, owing to the fact that a great number are drawn away to the Factories. He says that young women of good character and industrious habits may reach that place in 10 hours from New-York (fare $1) and immediately find good places at $2 to $3 per week; or, if they dislike housework, they can get good wages in factories.—There are many in this City who want employment, and we hope this notice may aid some of them to procure it.

VERMONT ELECTION.—The Abolition candidate for Governor in Vermont has declined. There are now but two candidates—Whig and Loco-Foco. The election takes place on the 7th of September.

STATE PRISON STATISTICS.—Capt. A. M. C. Smith, deputy sheriff, who conducts the convicts from this city to Sing Sing prison, informs us that 16 prisoners were discharged from that prison by expiration of sentence during the month of July. On the 1st of August inst. there remained in prison at Sing Sing 752 males and 67 females; total 819. This is a less number than there has been in the Sing Sing prison at any period for the last seven years.

A PROBABLE HOAX.—The Brooklyn News of yesterday states that a youth picked up, the day previous, in the East River, near Waring's Wharf, a bottle tightly corked, in which was found a scrap of paper, containing the following, written with a lead pencil:

"Lat. 43°, Long. 71° 45'. Fishing Snapper Jupiter. The hands mutilated, put me in confinement, where this is written, in the hold."

If any person picks this up, let him write to Jane Coffin, Nantucket, and receive the prayer of me. J. COFFIN."

The above may be genuine, but hoaxes of a similar description have become so common of late, that we are disposed to look upon any thing of the kind with distrust.

ANOTHER VICTIM.—We learn from the Westchester Herald that a young man named Charles Hobbs was last week found dead in a field in Northcastle, near the residence of his father Enos Hobbs. He had been at work alone. When he left the house he took with him three quarts of rum in a jug, and when found by his brother he was quite dead, and but half a pint of liquor left!

ANOTHER OF THE FATHERS GONE.—Died at Elizabethtown, N. Y., on the 1st inst. Mr. DAVID WILLIAMS, in his 84th year. Mr. W. was engaged during the whole of the revolutionary war and was present at the battles of Long Island and Monmouth. He received a pension from Government.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Philo Churchill, Jr., of Bennington, Wyoming County, was instantly killed while assisting to raise a barn in that town on Saturday last. While raising one of the beams, it slipped, and, falling upon Mr. C., crushed him to death.

SCIENCE.—At Dunkirk, on Sunday evening, a man named Samuel Pickett committed suicide by hanging himself. The cause of the fatal act was—RUM.

DIFFERENT COLORS OF MOURNING.—In Europe black is generally used. In China, white; in Egypt, yellow; in Turkey blue, in some parts, and in others, violet.

We trust that the long, distressing Drought in the centre of this State and Southern Vermont is now over. It commenced raining at Albany on Sunday evening, and continued into the next day.

James Banner, Esq., Justice of the Peace in Winton Township, Fayette County, Pa., and Mr. Abraham Stewart, were drowned on the 28th ult. while fishing in the Youghiogheny River, at a place called Briner's Hole. They were young men of great worth, and the melancholy event has thrown a gloom over the inhabitants of Uniontown, where they resided.

Mr. JAMES WILSON, formerly for many years Editor of the "American Watchman," died at Wilmington, Del. on Friday last, aged 77 years.

A Methodist Camp Meeting will commence at Hempstead Harbor, L. I., on Monday next, the 16th inst.

BOSTON AND PORTLAND RAILROAD.—This Road was opened on Wednesday last, and the cars commenced running to Newmarket, N. H., a distance of 57 miles from Boston and within eight of Dover. The remaining eight miles of the Railroad between Newmarket and Dover is nearly completed, and it is the intention of the Directors, we understand, to have it in readiness for the cars by the 1st September. The passage between Boston and Dover will then be made in about three hours.

DROWNED.—Henry Clay Hammond, aged 16 years, son of H. G. Hammond of Westport, Essex Co. a member of the Legislature of 1837, 1838, 1839, was drowned last Friday week in a stream near his residence. [Alb. Argus.]

TEMPERANCE AT THE COMMUNION TABLE.—The First Universalist Church in Lynn, it is said, has passed a vote to use water instead of wine at the communion table.

"An Amateur" is informed that we know nothing of the New-York Chess Club, beyond the fact of its existence; nor have we time to learn.

THE WIDOW DIRECTED TO THE WIDOW'S GOD: By JOHN ANGELL. James. Pp. 25. 12mo. Appleton & Co.

THE PEASANT AND THE POPE: By HARRIET MARTINEAU. Pp. 174. 12mo. D. Appleton, 200 Broadway.

These two little volumes will attract the attention of the different classes of readers with which their authors are respectively favorites. Mr. James has been growing in the estimation of the devout for several years. Miss Martineau has a world-wide reputation as a pleasing instructor of the young, which can hardly be increased. Each volume is very neatly printed.

The Commencement at the University of Vermont was held at Bennington on the 4th inst. An Oration was delivered before the Literary Society by Hon. GEO. A. SIMMONS, and a Poem by W. H. C. HOSMER, Esq., of Avon, N. Y. The Honorary degree of M. A. was conferred upon Wm. H. C. HOSMER, Esq., Wm. B. BENEDICT, Professor of Mathematics in the U. S. Navy, and Rev. CALVIN GRANGER, of Northfield, Vt.

Reverend E. W. GILBERT, President of Newark College, and Rev. BENJAMIN LARABEE, President of Middlebury College, received the degree of D. D.

The Annual Commencement of Brown University will be celebrated at Providence, R. I., on Wednesday, the 1st of September. JOHN A. BOLLES, Esq., of Boston, will deliver the Oration before the Philomathean Society, and JAMES T. FIELDS, Esq., of Boston, will deliver the Poem. Rev. GEO. B. CHEEVER, of this city, has been chosen Orator by the Society of "United Brothers," and Hon. GEO. LUSTY, of Newburyport, Poet. H. G. O. COLBY, Esq., of New-Bedford, will deliver the Oration before the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

COURT OF SESSIONS, August 10.—Before the Recorder, and Judges Lynch and Noah.

Matthew L. Barron was tried for grand larceny, in stealing from Josiah Seagraves, Jr., of Providence, R. I., $710 in bills, contained in a pocket-book in his pantaloon pocket, which was snatched out of him as he was standing at the corner of Broadway and Anthony-st. on the night of the 19th March last. A white man ran against him and knocked his hat one side, and a black fellow (Butcher Joe) took the pocket-book and money from his pocket and ran down Anthony-st., pursued by complainant. The white man went up Broadway. Complainant described the dress and size of the white man as the same as those of the prisoner, but did not see his face. Officer A. M. C. Smith arrested the prisoner and Butcher Joe together, near the residence of the latter, but found none of the money on the prisoner. As the prisoner could not be positively identified, the jury found him not guilty, and he was remanded for sentence on a former conviction.

James Flynn was tried for receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, viz: two coats worth $50, stolen by an English boy, aged 17, named John Williams, from the Hotel of Island Smith, 31 Park Row, on the 14th June last. The boy deposed that he stole the coats, and that he sold them to prisoner for $6.30, telling him that he stole them before he sold them. Prisoner and he knew they were stolen. The jury found the prisoner guilty.

Frederick Bait, Christian Schaub and Conrad Singer, were tried for grand larceny, in stealing 12 hogs, worth $70, from Ann Agnew, widow, corner of 1st Avenue and 10th street, on the 26th June last. Six of the hogs of complainant were found in the slaughter house of prisoners, corner of Avenue C and 5th street, killed and partly dressed, and the prisoners concealed in a close cart, with the lid down. The jury found the prisoners guilty.

SPECIAL SESSIONS, August 10.—Before Judge Noah and Aldermen Benoun and Williams.

Catherine Bell was tried for stealing a gold breastpin worth $7 from John Baptiste Davis; also stealing a pocket-book and $23 from Thos. Hamilton; not guilty on the former; guilty as charged on the latter, and sent to the Penitentiary 60 days. Moses Phillips, assault and battery on Catherine Bell; guilty—judgment suspended and he discharged.

Edward T. Martin, assault and battery on officer Joseph Horn; guilty—Penitentiary 60 days. Eliza Lacy, stealing a frock, two baskets and a small iron safe; guilty—judgment suspended and she discharged.

John Brown, a boy, stealing a two pound weight from Henry Kelly; guilty, and remanded to Lewis Bell, a boy, stealing a cravat and 5 pair of gloves from Eli B. Forbes; guilty, and sent to the House of Refuge. Patrick Owen, a boy, stealing seven nuts from the Screw Dock, and sent to the House of Refuge.

Michael Laroppe, assault and battery on Angeline Osborne; guilty—Penitentiary 60 days. Eldridge Kelly, assault and battery on Thomas L. Neville; guilty—City Prison 30 days.

Discharges.—John Daily and Charles Iriza, charged with petit larceny, and Charles McIntyre, Garrett Tobin, Peter Vaulce, and Francis Hall, a stout boy, hack driver, charged with assault and battery, were severally discharged, no witnesses testifying against them.

POLICE OFFICE.—Stealing Shoes.—A boy named Peter Barnes, who has been in the habit of selling shoes for his father—a shoemaker—which he carried about in a basket, was yesterday caught in the act of stealing and carrying off two pairs of Misses' boots from the store of John H. Richards, 240 Canal street, for which he was police and imprisoned.

Theft of a Hat.—Patrick Coffey was arrested and committed for stealing a silk hat, worth $3, from 86 Cherry st. the property of John Desmond of 107 Cherry st.

Robbing a Paramour.—Ellen Chambers, a frail one, was yesterday arrested and imprisoned for stealing from a paramour three twenty franc gold pieces.

Fake Pretences.—Samuel Fedion was yesterday arrested on a charge of having obtained $63 46 worth of leather from Messrs. Penny, Brown & Co. under and by false pretences, on the 17th September, 1840. It was deposed to that he said he owned a house and lot, 122 Bank st. and that Calvin Griswold, whom he offered as endorser, owned several lots thereabouts, and thus got the leather for Asa Ferguson, giving his own and Ferguson's joint note at 90 days for the amount, with Calvin Griswold as the endorser. At maturing the note was dishonored, and brought judgment obtained and execution issued, and none of the houses and lots represented to belong to the parties were found or heard of farther. The accused was then committed in default of bail.

CORONER'S OFFICE.—Suicide.—The Coroner yesterday held an inquest at the house of Arthur Gardner, Jr., in 31st street, between 8th and 9th Avenues, on the body of Arthur Gardner, sen., aged 66, a native of Ireland, father of the above. The deceased exhibited some equivocal evidences of alienation of mind, and on Sunday last, about 6 o'clock in the evening, rose abruptly from the table, went out, and acted very strangely. His wife followed him out and saw him drink something from a phial, which she subsequently ascertained to be laudanum. Castor Oil was administered which sickened him, and Dr. Cockran being sent for at a late period, gave such remedies as were proper. The deceased was kept awake until 11 o'clock, when he was suffered to go to sleep, and when Dr. Seebew was sent for the next morning he found him dying. He died at 5 o'clock on Monday afternoon. Verdict, he committed suicide by taking laudanum while in a state of mental derangement.

A TALE OF HORROR.—Three Children murdered by their own Mother.—We copy the following account of the most distressing and revolting infanticide that has ever come within our knowledge, from the Louisville (Miss.) Tablet of the 24th ult.:

"One of the most awful deeds that has perhaps ever come within the knowledge of the human race was perpetrated in the vicinity of this place on Sunday morning last, by a Mrs. Roper. She killed three of her own children by cutting their heads off with an axe. From the information which we have received on the subject, it seems to have been done while she was in a fit of mental derangement. It was her intention to have killed two more in the same manner, and afterwards hang herself with a hank of yarn, but her husband waking up, discovered something extraordinary in her actions and seized her around the waist. After a strong effort on her part to escape from him, during which she tried to draw one of three knives from the ceiling, which she had previously sharpened and put there, they reached the door, when he discovered what she had been doing.

"She is the mother of eleven children, including the three which she killed. She appears now to be restored to reason, and is a pitiable spectacle of the deepest and most bitter anguish. She says that while under the influence of a distorted imagination, she thought she was doing a charitable action in ridding her husband of the burthen of supporting herself and their five youngest children, as he is a poor and very hard-working man."

CASTLE GARDEN.—Before the "last night" arrives, we hope every one who wishes to while away a pleasant evening agreeably, and at the same time feast his eyes on the richest and most sublime sight he ever saw, will visit Castle Garden and see the Eruption of Mount Vesuvius. It will be presented this evening. Read the bill in another column.

MADAME NINON DE L'ENCLOS.—It is a matter of history that this celebrated heroine was beautiful at the age of 80, that she still retained her charm of pleasing, and had her toilet crowded by young admirers, some of whom were told by her biographers were passionately in love with her. Even an Abbot in the bloom of life was most violently smitten by her attractions, and ardently desired her hand, which, for the novelty of the case, she made him wait (he ignorant of her age) till she had completed her 80th year. The celebrated Donna Isabella, Queen of Hungary, is another instance of a woman retaining her beauty at an advanced period of life, viz. 74 years. Innumerable instances might be quoted, but the above will suffice. The grand secret of resisting the ravages of time and keeping a lustrous, dazzling face, consists in a judicious and discriminating taste and skill in selecting for use from the various cosmetics daily spread before them, such as are prepared by our own and foreign chemists. Among all none rank higher than Dr. FRANK GOURAUD's celebrated "Eau de Beauté," a mild and innocent preparation from beautiful exotics, and effectually eradicates eruptions, tan, pimples, freckles, redness, spots and all cutaneous imperfections, renders the most salacious complexion delicate and pure, but without the least artificiality or coarseness, imparting a juvenile bloom, as well as realizing a delicate white neck, hand and arm, and from its dilating properties, banishing every wrinkle from the countenance. Gentlemen after shaving will find it all the irritation and smarting pain, and render the skin smooth and pleasant. To be had only at (2) Walker-street, one door from Broadway. $1 per bottle. (3)

Caution.—The public are hereby respectfully cautioned against a most base and infamous imitation of Vail's Turkish Water of Beauty, called Eau de Beauté, said to be concocted by a pseudo Dr. Since the introduction of my water of beauty, many imitations have sprung up, seeking to borrow from its well known reputation a few base and unwarranted gains. They have not only counterfeited my Water, but have had the despicable meanness to copy my advertisement nearly word for word. Those who would not be gulled must agree to be constant against these vile imitations. Vail's Turkish Water of Beauty is the only one on which any reliance can be placed for beautifying the Skin, and removing all Tan, Freckles, Spots and Blotches from human face divine.
